Overland

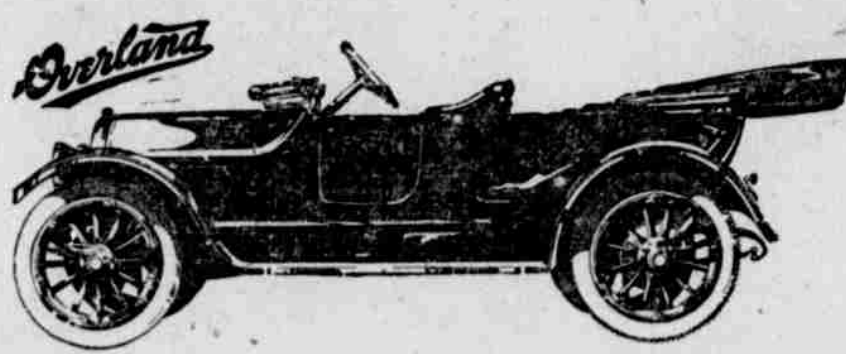

Model 75—f. o. b. Toledo

$615

Roadster $595

With Electric Starter and Electric Lights

Four-Inch Tires

This car is very easy to handle. It responds quickly. Anyone in the family can drive it.

The electric switches are conveniently located on the steering column. This is the same arrangement used on the highest priced cars.

It has the easy working Overland clutch, which any woman can operate. The pedals are adjustable for reach. The steering wheel is large and turns easily.

The brakes are large and powerful.

The rear springs are the famous cantilever type. These are probably the easiest riding and most shock-absorbing springs ever designed. With these springs riding comfort is insured.

The seats are roomy and comfortable, for the soft cushions are built over deep coiled springs.

It has a mohair one-man top.

In short, there is everything that makes this car up-to-date and comparable with many cars costs considerably more money.

You will be delighted when you see it. And when you ride in it you'll know instantly that this is your ideal of a modern automobile at your idea of a moderate price.

Other Overland models are—Model 83 five-passenger touring car, $750; the famous Overland Six seven-passenger touring car, $1,145. All prices being f. o. b. Toledo.

NORTHFIELD.

Arthur H. Smith and Miss Florence Matthews Married.

Arthur H. Smith and Miss Florence Matthews were quietly married Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock by Rev. James B. Sargent, pastor of the Congregational church. They left immediately for a wedding trip, after which they will reside in town. Mr. Smith is employed in the office of Charles M. Davis & company.

Mrs. J. R. Gates and two daughters left Wednesday for New Brunswick, where they will spend some time at her home before leaving with Mr. Gates for Africa.

Claude L. Morse, W. A. Shaw and Professor H. R. Roberts were among those in Montpelier last night to attend the annual meeting of the sixth Masonic district.

Mrs. A. E. Covell, Mrs. Alma Sawyer and Miss Marjorie Sawyer were in Barre yesterday.

Misses Mildred and Gertrude House of Berlin are visiting Mrs. A. E. Covell.

Hon. Frank Plumley and Miss Laura Averill returned yesterday from Montpelier, where they have been in attendance at the Rabidou trial.

Mrs. Channsey Denny left Thursday for Florida, where she will spend the winter months.

Captain Ira L. Reeves is this week moving his household goods from Burlington.

Mrs. Lucy P. Kimball of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Mrs. Melissa H. Kellogg of Hanover, N. H., are visiting their nephew, Egbert L. Field.

Edward Holton has returned from a business trip to Boston in the interests of Boyles & Holton. He was accompanied by Mrs. Holton.

George Andrews of Pasadena, Cal., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles N. Whitmarsh.

F. S. Sawyer was a business visitor in Montpelier yesterday.

A large audience attended the production of "Quincy Adams Sawyer," in Armory hall Thursday evening. Company F will, therefore, realize a tidy sum.

Edward Ryan of Utah is visiting his mother at the Ryan farm at the Falls. George L. Tupper of the tax department returned Wednesday from a business trip to Montgomery Center.

WAITSFIELD.

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 23, Miss Albertson of New York will give readings, pianologues, etc., at the M. E. church.

On Sunday morning next, Rev. C. M. Redstone will occupy the M. E. pulpit, the first time since his accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Kingsbury have been spending the week in Fayston.

At the missionary meeting of the Home circle Wednesday, 18 ladies listened to the report of the woman's board meeting.

The teachers of the graded schools in Warren, Fayston and Waitsfield had a teachers' meeting here Friday, with Superintendent of Schools Norman Frost.

On Friday, the high school held a solid session, and is closed for one week.

Little Winifred Joslyn is in Heaton hospital, Montpelier, and not in Mary Fletcher, as stated by mistake in this column. Winifred is doing as well as could be expected after so serious an operation.

Mrs. Henry LaMorder went to Burlington Thursday to be with her daughter, Miss Effie LaMorder, who was operated on Friday.

The Chatham Concert company, under the auspices of the Rebekahs, gave an entertainment in I. O. O. F. hall Thursday evening. The company consists of Myretta Chatham, reader; Adelaide Rynders, violinist; Hazel Lundin, soprano; Howard Walter, pianist. Miss Chatham carried her audience by storm and showed exceptional ability in her readings and impersonations, evoking, as she did, her audience from laughter to deep seriousness. Great credit is due the excellence of the performance, especially in view of the fact that the hall was not only not ventilated till intermission, but also constantly disturbed by murmured conversations.

Principal Venable of the high school is spending Thanksgiving recess at his home in Huntington.

Simon Bonnette, who has been ill so many weeks, is able to sit up a few minutes daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold LaMorder are the parents of a six-pound son, born Thursday, Nov. 18.

Mrs. C. H. Newcomb is suffering with an attack of lumbago.

Sunday morning at the Congregational church the regular Thanksgiving service will be held, and a Thanksgiving offering will be taken for the stricken Armenians.
